

I strongly support XM Satellite Radio's right to broadcast traffic and safety bulletins over the airways. This, in my opinion is a great public service that I use on a daily basis. I don't see where this can cause any type of "hardship" to the broadcast industry.